LATER FROM CAMP MAURY —Our correspondent with Company G, on the expedition against the Snake Indians, writes from Camp Maury, under date of the 3d inst, says that since the affray in which Lieut Watson lost his life, all efforts to learn the whereabouts of the Indians have proved futile McKay had been to the Reservation and returned with seventy more friendly Indians who are intent on avenging those of their old comrades who fell in the late fight At the time our correspondent wrote, the party awaited the return of Lieut. Noble, from a scouting excursion, when they would proceed to Harney Lake, with the expectation of joining at that place Capt Curry's Company from Boise, which would increase the grand total of the little army to 400 men, thought to be equal to any emergency that could arise on account of Snake Indians this fall,

A postcript dated June 7th, says that Stock Whitly died the night previous Lieutenant Noble had returned and a band of 40 Indians from the Reserve had been out two days and a half and brought in three squaws and eight children of the Snakes The party was to break up camp for a forward movement that day The next news from them will doubtless be fraught with deep interest

THE WESTERN EMIGRATION —The San Francisco Bulletin, is convinced that the present year will show a greater aggregate of immigration than for several years preceding The continuance of the rebellion, the depreciated paper currency of the East, and the improved facilities for travel are all having their effect. It now begins to be seen also that while the positive value of the precious metals remains unchanged, the relative value is to be for years to come largely increased To the young man who has no capital save his own strong sinews, this is no trivial incentive to emigration With health, energy, and good habits, the mines and the soil of the Pacific Slope present such inducements as no where exists in the Atlantic States, and many will avail themselves of them. Sitting as San Francisco does, the gateway between the East and the West, where the steamers and the clippers land the greater part of the emigrators to this coast, we often witness with deep interest the varied phases of character which these adventurers exhibit

SHORT OF MONEY —It is said that Maximilian was especially desirous of an imperial position in Mexico, for the reason that he was short of money and desired an opportunity to replenish his empty pockets This is not improbable, and Louis Napoleon, it is quite likely, lent him his assistance in the matter on the pledge that while Maximilian had his hand in he should appropriate enough to pay for the necessities of both The Philadelphia Press remarks in this connection

In fact, Maximilian has little chance of getting on, in Mexico, without more money A second loan can scarcely be obtained in Europe His only chance against that impecuniosity which is as unpleasant to crowned heads as to less pretentious individuals soon will be, to seize the Church property which is of immense value in Mexico, and if he attempt this the consequent opposition from the powerful Catholic clergy will be found perplexing, if not deadly.

MADE THE WRONG CALCULATION —A sum not less than four thousand dollars was expended by Polk county Copperheads for the election imprtation of votes to carry the election against the Union We are informed that two of the importers, when the bills come to be settled, got at loggerheads on account of one having miscalculated the Union strength, when, as the complainant asserted, there might just as well have been enough imported as not We are sorry that their political speculators are falling out among themselves, they had better pay the bills and say nothing more about the matter "Whom the gods wish to destroy, they first make mad"

MISCEGENATION — Mrs Farnham, the authoress, now in the East superintending the publication of her 'Woman and her Era,' writes to a friend in Santa Cruz as follows, "The pamphlet Miscegenation proves to have been written by a pro slavery Democrat for embarrassing the Republicans, and giving such journals as the Herald fitting pretexts whereon to expend their virulence and vulgarity."

Arabic camels laden with iron for quartz mills situated half way between the Sierra Nevada and Salt Lake, would have looked funny in print a few years ago But four of these humpbacked denizens of the desert marched into Austin a few days ago with loads of castings for the mining mills thereabouts

Adjutant General Schouler, of Massachusetts, reports that that State has furnished 69, 893 three years' volunteers 17 744 nine months' men, and 3 742 three months' men, since the beginning of the war Total 91, 379.

LOADYISM TO REBEL CUT-THROATS.—A correspondent of the Missouri Democrat, writing from Cairo, Ill., April 14, gives the following instance of disgusting toadyism of Federal officers to rebel cut throats, immediately after the massacre at Fort Pillow The scamps upon it should be court martialed drummed out of the Federal service and be forever avoided by all decent men The writer says

Two or three Federal band box officers on board the Platte Valley, one of them with his young bride, made themselves conspicuous in fawning around the rebel officers They brought Gen. Chalmers and several subordinate cut-throat looking officers on board the Platte Valley, drank with them, introduced them to their wives, and invited them to dinner They made room for them at the ladies' table and they sat down to dinner, but it happened either by accident or from a just idea of the fitness of things on the part of our high spirited captain, that at that moment the signal bell for moving was heard, and the rebel officers, leaving their soup untouched, skedaddled, Gen Chalmers soliloquizing, as he hurried past your correspondent, that he had learned to run as well as to fight In the conversation preceding the dinner, Gen Chalmers said he did not countenance or encourage his soldiers in killing capture negro soldiers, but it was right and justifiable. A Federal officer who will so disgrace himself and his country, ought to be dismissed from the service.

The rebel officers were generally well clad, but had very little to distinguish them from the privates Gen. Chalmers had simply a black feather in his hat, and the other officers stripes on their collars.

A DISPATCH AS IS A DISPATCH —The following dispatch was received at Washington, May 13th, from General Ingalls, Chief Quartermaster of the Army of the Potomac—it having positive information from the front as late as noon of May 12th

We have made a "ten strike" to day Hancock went in at daylight He has taken over four thousand prisoners and twenty five guns, and is still fighting. Everybody is fighting and has been for eight days We shall have them this pop, though it may take a day or two more Our losses are heavy—can't say how many If Augur's forces were here now we could finish them to day Hancock captured General Ned Johnson and two other Generals, besides lots of lower grades The old Republic is firm Bet your pile on it Grant is a giant and a hero in war, but all our Generals are gallant and as to our men, the world never had better Yours in haste,
INGALLS

General Ingalls may be set down as a hero and a patriot He talks like a lover of his country.

The Richmond Enquirer is probably the highest authority in the Rebel Confederacy The following are its terms of conciliation

"This Confederacy or the Yankee Nation one or the other goes down to perdition We all know by this time the fate in store for us if we succumb As surely as we completely ruin their armies—and without that there is no peace nor truce at all—so surely shall we make them pay our war debt, THOUGH WE WRING IT OUT OF THEIR HEARTS"

The Philadelphia Press says there has been such an intense and bitter hatred and envy of the progress and prosperity of the United States among foreign nations, with the exception of Russia, that loyal America can look for no favor or countenance from them

Bushwhacking rebels in Missouri sawed into a man's leg seven times to make him tell where his money was secreted The poor victim of fiendish barbarity "did and said made no sign" The gang went to the next farmer and cut off his head

ACCIDENT —Bluford Desdmond, an old resident of this county, met with a painful and serious accident at his residence yesterday morning By the accidental discharge of a pistol he was handling he received the ball in the left arm near the elbow, and it may cost him the use of his arm Dr Hanchett was promptly called, and gave him all needful and skilful surgical attendance —Eugene City Review

CORPS D'ALENE MISSION BURNED —Rev Father Gazzoli has just arrived from the above place and reports that the mission buildings with all the appurtenances—including the agricultural implements belonging to the farms—were recently consumed by fire The fire resulted from the careless use of some of the inmates of the mission Father Gazzoli intends to endeavor to raise a sufficient sum to rebuild the mission —Walla Walla Statesman.

Additional Eastern News.

WASHINGTON, June 4 —The steamer Connecticut which left White House yesterday, reports that on Thursday last June 2d clouds of smoke were seen in the direction of Richmond It was the belief at White House that a disastrous conflagration was in progress at the rebel Capital Several rebel wounded who were brought up by the Connecticut report that Lee was sick in Richmond, leaving Ewell in command Eight hundred rebel prisoners have already arrived at White House Others are on their way down Also treasband post has been established at White House and already contains 1000 The number is constantly increasing The Richmond and York river railroad is being rapidly repaired. The bridge over the Pamunkey was completed on Monday May 30th and the cars have arrived on barges from Alexandria Repair shops are being erected at White House and the place assumed a business appearance again. General Abercrombie in command of the post and has general supervision of the landing of troops, etc

NEW YORK, June 4 —The Commercial says J J Cisco has been compelled by the state of his health to resign his position as Assistant Treasurer to take effect at the close of the fiscal year

ST LOUIS, June 5 —A dispatch from Cape Girardeau Missouri represent the enemy as unusually active in that portion of the State Two hundred guerillas are encamped near Bacon another party reported at Cave Island and still another at Dumpah Col Rogers thinks these movements of guerillas are intended to cover an attack on some important point Their presence in that vicinity is accounted for by the abandonment of Batesville and Jacksonport by the Union troops leaving the country open to the rebels of Arkansas

FORTRESS MONROE June 4 —A rebel Major who came into Butler's lines at Bermuda Hundred yesterday says the Federal forces at Secessionville are threatening Charleston The commander there sent to the rebel authorities for reinforcements saying that unless he received them immediately Charleston would be lost

ST LOUIS June 6 —The Sanitary Fair was practically brought to a close on Saturday night It proved a magnificent success exceeding the expectations of the most sanguine The gross receipts to date from all sources are not less than $575 000 the net proceeds which will pass into the hands of the Sanitary Commission will be at least a half million The army sword was awarded to General Hancock, who received 2,403 votes McClellan was second on the list

WORDS FITLY SPOKEN —M R Thayer, of Pennsylvania, on the 4th ultimo, advocated the Reconstruction Bill, which has since passed the House, in a forcible speech, where in he said

Mr Speaker, the voice of the people of the United States cannot be mistaken They demand of us, their representatives, that the institution of human slavery, which has from the beginning been our national reproach, the fruitful source of sectional enmity and strife, the obstacle to the development of one-half of our territory, the secret enemy which has for seventy years sowed our vineyard with tares and brambles, which has alienated brethren of the same blood, which has proscribed education fomented discord, encouraged opposition to our republican system, weakened the ties of National allegiance, and at last array'd itself in bloody war against the Government, shall be forever blotted out in the rebel States, and that upon its ruins shall be writ ten a legend like that which indignant France wrote over the gateway of rebellious Lyons "Slavery made war upon the republic, slavery is no more" They demand this as the right of war against the public enemy They demand it in the name of that very Constitution which it sought here to be made its shelter and its shield They demand it as the only adequate compensation for the sacrifices which they have made and the suffering which they have endured They demand it in the name of liberty and humanity They demand it as the only pledge of future union and tranquility They demand it for their own peace and safety, and for the repose and security of their children Already its grim and terrible form, weakened by its wounds, begrimed with the dust of battle, and covered with the blood of brave men, which has been shed in this sanguinary war, cowers and reels before the banners of the republic As it falls, let it hear ringing in its ears the decree for its extermination, pronounced here by the representatives of the people

THE DRUNKEN SENATOR —The Sacramento Union's Washington correspondent, in his letter of May 5th, says

The other day, while the proposition to raise the pay of colored soldiers was up in the Senate, Howard of Michigan was talking with McDougall, who was trying to persuade Howard of what his duty is as Chairman of the Pacific Railroad Committee. The roll was being called upon the passage of the bill, said McDougall

"Make y'rself mas'r sujeck, I say make y'rself mas'r sujeck, zat's what I've done y'r Mr McDougall," says the Clerk "Vote aye," interpolated Howard "Aye' make y'rself mas'r sujeck, I say, I've made myself mas'r sujeck," went on McDougall, and so he goes down to posterity as having voted for the righteous proposition of paying black soldiers white men's wages

A STUPID CRATER —The head of a turtle, for several days after its separation from the body, retains and exhibits animal life and sensation An Irishman had decapitated one, and some days afterwards was amusing himself by putting sticks in its mouth which it bit with violence A lady who saw the proceeding, exclaimed — "Why, Patrick, I thought the turtle was dead!" "So he is ma'am, but the stupid crater's not sinsible of it!"—Ex.

That's precisely the case with the Democratic party. It is dead beyond all hope of resurrection, but "the stupid crater isn't sinsible of it," and still snaps viciously at the Government —Gazette

LARGE HAIL —The Downieville Messenger of June 4th says

On Sunday last our town was visited by a perfect deluge of hail and rain. The hail was peculiar, being clear as crystal and smooth as glass Fortunately, there was but little wind at the time, or the damage to windows and gardens would have been great We have heard of some hailstones, picked up after the shower, that measured three inches in circumference Several hours after the storm, persons passing over the trail leading to Forest City found the hail lying in spots to the depth of ten inches

GEN GRANT ON ENFORCING THE LAWS —At the time of the threatened difficulty in Kentucky about the enrolment of negroes, Gen Grant, who happened to be in Louisville, was asked by a prominent Union man what he would do if Gov Bramlette & Co made trouble about the enrolment "Do?" said the General, looking at the interrogator a moment with surprise—"My God Sir, what have I to do with their notions about slaves? This is a law of Congress It shall be executed, if I have to bring up the entire army from Chattanooga Tell them so!"

In the Mediterranean Sea near the coast of Sicily, a movable island has been seen of late sometimes rising almost to the surface of the water, and again disappearing quite out of sight It is supposed to be of volcanic origin and an English vessel with a cargo of sulphur men on board is stationed in the vicinity watching the phases of the phenomenon

The St Louis Presbytery has declared the rebellion a sin against God equalled only by Adam's fall, Absalom's rebellion against his father and the crucifixion of Christ

MISCEGENATION —McNabb, of the Petaluma Argus, gives the result of his conversations with honest miners from the Sunny South, around the cabin hearthstone in the early days of California as follows. Many an old Californian can bear similar testimony

From the lips of Southern men, when there was no possible motive for their thus narratives of facts, we heard more than enough to cause us to loathe and abhor slavery as a burning shame and a disgrace to our land As exaggerated as had appeared the stories published and circulated by Anti slavery societies, they were mild in comparison with incidents oft repeated in our presence, and which afforded the burthen of conversation between men from the South with whom we constantly came in contact These men who related the circumstantial details of immoralities of every shade and degree, from the seduction of a daughter of a Member of the Mississippi Legislature by her father a slave down to the mildest type of degradation inseparable wherever humanity is reduced to the condition of a chattel, were neither sentimental philanthropist nor fanatical abolitionists but men who idolized and regarded as Divine the institution of slavery, and who like the editor of the Democrat, were exceedingly eloquent in their denunciation of 'Northern amalgamationists" As much as has been said and written about the degrading vices of slavery, the half has never been told, and in behalf of our race and our pretensions to civilization and our claims to christian virtues we sincerely trust that with the memory of this generation may rest and be bequeathed by it to oblivion the full knowledge of the damning barbarism which characterized slavery in our day and time

THE REWARD OF LOW WAGES FOR WORKWOMEN. —The practical result of low wages of seamstresses and workwomen was illustrated by an incident which came to our immediate notice yesterday. A young girl, neatly though plainly dressed, was arrested by a police officer for improperly soliciting men on the street. When taken to the station house she admitted the charge, but said she was compelled to adopt that course of life or starve She came from Vermont with her mother and another sister because they could find no employment there. Since their removal the mother had been sick and their support had devolved upon this girl, who worked in a shop on Essex street, and received ten cents for making thirteen button holes. Work as hard as she might she could not earn enough to support the family, and so was compelled to add to her earnings by going on the street. She told her story plainly but with an apparent feeling that she was justified by the necessities Other facts known to the police corroborated her story and there is no doubt that she was driven to a life of shame Such facts show there is still work for philanthropists and reformers at home, even in Boston —Boston Post.

The word 'Fenian" is said by a paper published at the late Fenian Fair, Chicago to be derived from the Gaelic word Fiann, and to have been the name given to an order or class of professional soldiers among the pagan Irish This order existed from the remotest times and was a kind of national guard. Hence the significance of the name as now used

A curious story is told of the celebrated Dr Doddridge, who, 'eminently pious as he was, amused himself and his then young friend Hannah More, by reading to her Prior's Wife of Bath Society in his time tolerated many practices and opinions which are now tabooed

DEATH OF CAPT LYLE —Capt Thomas W Lyle died in this city yesterday forenoon, at the Dennison House His age was about 55 years Capt Lyle has for several years been a resident of San Francisco, where he was universally esteemed by a large circle of friends, to whom the intelligence of his sudden death will be sad tidings During four years past he has often visited Oregon, being largely interested, as we learn, in the operations of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company and his genial presence was always warmly welcomed by our citizens He arrived here a month ago, and made a trip to the Dalles from which he returned about the first of June, with greatly impaired health, and from that time till his death, he has been daily yielding to the power of disease, which neither the concentrating attention of friends, nor the utmost skill of his physicians could alleviate or remove At his own request his remains were forwarded to San Francisco by the steamer Pacific, to be buried near the graves of Capt the Staples and Seeley, old friends in life, to whose memory he was very warmly attached Capt Lyle was a native of South Carolina and during his early manhood for many years was a commander of favorite steamers on the western rivers, where his reputation was second to that of none among that most eminent class of inland navigators and secured to him a wide spread popularity He left no relatives on this coast, but his kindness of heart and sterling virtues have surrounded him with a multitude who loved him living, and will mourn that he has thus suddenly been summoned to his final rest

SIGNS OF RETURNING REASON —The press of California have been unequivocally opposed to rendering any account in favor of the new mining regions, to the east and north of us, lying in Oregon and Idaho, but while the fact of the richness of these camps has been generally understood, in private circles there, enough has leaked out to give a few parties a start this way with their capital, invested irrespective of news, paper articles, and it may result to the benefit of the country, in the end At present, however, there appears unconsciously a part of the truth of our existence in a paper by way of correspondence, a paragraph in the San Francisco Bulletin, It is an extract from a Ruby City, Owyhee correspondence of the writer says

"I profess in quartz, and one of any value, but I the world affords no greater and capital at the present I have found in the granite formation I have traced it east, and the ledge fairly widens and enlarges with which the veins are combined, and coloration with wealth in view stations, and those eighteen miles at would once have realized ghest, fails now to exceed Mr Farmer, sent here by A and, to superintend working of their quartz mill is now ready here expects soon to crushing and faith in the Owyhee and refuse, he is firmly that the truth has not been that the reality Many have followed here years in South America the opinion weight

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS —The Circuit Court, Judge Shattuck presiding, met at the Court House in this city yesterday morning. Messrs L White, W F. A SUGGESTION —A fine opportunity is now afforded by the receding waters of the Willamette, for a thorough cleaning out of the trash which has accumulated for two years past on the river front of this city That something of the kind is needed, no person will doubt, after a knowledge of what exists in the shape of decaying vegetable matter, old boxes, crates, etc

RECORDER'S COURT.—Three drunks were disposed of before Recorder McCoy yesterday, in each case the defendants paid their fines and departed in peace. To day Wm. Higgings will have a hearing in answer to a charge of bad conduct, when a deck hand on board the steamer Pacific, while discharging freight at this port

FINAL DEPARTURE —The steamship Pacific did not sail yesterday morning as was expected, in consequence of the dying condition of Capt T W Lyle, but left at six o'clock last evening

DEATH OF CAPT. LYLE.—Capt. Thomas W. Lyle died in this city yesterday forenoon, at the Dennison House. His age was about 55 years. Capt. Lyle has for several years been a resident of San Francisco, where he was universally esteemed by a large circle of friends, to whom the intelligence of his sudden death will be sad tidings. During four years past he has often visited Oregon, being largely interested, as we learn, in the operations of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, and his genial presence was always warmly welcomed by our citizens. He arrived here a month ago, and made a trip to the Dalles, from which he returned about the first of June, with greatly impaired health, and from that time till his death, he has been daily yielding to the power of disease, which neither the unremitting attention of friends, nor the utmost skill of his physicians could alleviate or remove. At his own request his remains were forwarded to San Francisco by the steamer Pacific, to be buried near the graves of Captains Staples and Seeley, old friends in life, to whose memory he was very warmly attached. Capt. Lyle was a native of South Carolina, and during his early manhood for many years was a commander of favorite steamers on the western rivers, where his reputation was second to that of none among that most eminent class of inland navigators, and secured to him a wide spread popularity. He left no relatives on this coast, but his kindness of heart and sterling virtues have surrounded him with a multitude who loved him living, and will mourn that he has thus suddenly been summoned to his final rest.

SIGNS OF RETURNING REASON.—The press of California have been unequivocally opposed to rendering any account in favor of the new mining regions, to the east and north of us, lying in Oregon and Idaho, but while the fact of the richness of these camps has been generally understood, in private circles there, enough has "leaked out" to give a few parties a start this way, with their capital, invested irrespective of newspaper articles, and it may result to the best advantage of the country, in the end. At a late hour, however, there appears occasionally a gleam of the truth of our existence in a California paper, by way of correspondence, as the following paragraph in the San Francisco Bulletin will show. It is an extract from a letter written at Ruby City, Owyhee, on the 23d ult.; the writer says:

"I profess to be inexperienced in quartz, and incompetent to pronounce an opinion of any value, but I am satisfied that the world affords no greater opening for enterprise and capital at the present time than can be found in the granite range of Owyhee. * * * I have certainly not exaggerated the least, and the enthusiastic and excitable temperament with which nature favored me, has been cooled and calmed down by a perfect surfeit of wealth in view that far exceeds my anticipations, and the sight of a piece of quartz that would once have raised my curiosity to the highest, fails now to excite a comment. Mr. Farmer, sent here by Ainsworth & Co. of Portland, to superintend the erection and working of their quartz mill, declares that the reality here exceeds his power of belief. After laughing at Capt. Ainsworth for his account of, and faith in the richness of the Owyhee ledges, and refusing for weeks to believe what he saw here, he is finally compelled to own that the truth has not been wholly told him and that the reality exceeds report." Mr. Farmer has followed silver mining for many years in South America, Mexico, and Washoe, and his opinion should be entitled to some weight.

MEETING OF DELEGATES.—The Board of Delegates, representing the different Companies of the Portland Fire Department, held a session at the Council Chamber last evening. A. B Hallock, President, in the Chair.

The following members were present: A B Hallock, Alex. Dodge, T. A. Davis, J. DeHart, Wm. B. Clark, R. Hendrie, Henry Failing, H. Boyd, H. C. Coulson.

The following standing committees were appointed:

Auditors—Hill, Failing and DeHart.
Finance—McAllister, Davis and Dodge.
Hose Stations—Boyd, Coulson and Dalton.
Hose—Hendrie, Clark and Wailing.

A communication from Mr. C. Barrell, tendering the Portland Fire Department a lot of ground 100 feet square for Cemetery purposes, was read and referred to the committee on same.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the stated meetings of this Board be held on the second Monday of the months of September, December, March and June, in each year, until otherwise ordered.

Several applications for certificates of exemption, were presented and referred to the committee on certificates.

Meeting adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The Circuit Court, Judge Shattuck presiding, met at the Court House in this city yesterday morning. Messrs. L. White, W. F. Allen, B. Sandiland, C. C. Clark, W. Gray, Peter Smith and Daniel Walton, were empanneled as a Grand Jury. In the case of the State vs. H. Kittredge, the bond was forfeited and amount paid. C. F. Grover, admr., vs. D. F. Bradford, referred to W. S. Caldwell. State vs. J. Golden and J. V. Clery, dismissed. State vs. E. A. Taylor, dismissed. Two causes were continued. A number of motions were heard and Court adjourned until to-day at 10 o'clock.

A SUGGESTION.—A fine opportunity is now afforded by the receding waters of the Willamette, for a thorough cleaning out of the trash which has accumulated for two years past on the river front of this city. That something of the kind is needed, no person will doubt, after a knowledge of what exists in the shape of decaying vegetable matter, old boxes, crates, etc.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Three drunks were disposed of before Recorder McCoy yesterday, in each case the defendants paid their fines and departed in peace. To-day Wm. Higgins will have a hearing in answer to a charge of bad conduct, when a deck hand on board the steamer Pacific, while discharging freight at this port.

FINAL DEPARTURE.—The steamship Pacific did not sail yesterday morning as was expected, in consequence of the dying condition of Capt. T. W. Lyle, but left at six o'clock last evening.

TWO STEAMERS—the Hunt and the Julia—are employed daily, in the carrying trade between this city and the Cascades, and seem to have a large amount to do.

COLD AND STORMY.—Fires were not uncomfortable, and umbrellas were in demand, in this part of the country yesterday.

CONCERTS.—Ossian E. Dodge will give a concert at Milwaukie this evening, and arrive in our city to-morrow. We can positively assure our readers that the Concert to be given by this gentleman at Willamette Theatre, will be no common place affair, assisted by Mr. Hayward, who is highly spoken of.

SEWARD'S WAY.—In a speech at Baltimore lately, Mr. Seward said that if he had his way, all of the border States would have been held in the Union, and would now have been members of it. A sufficient force should have been forced in each of them to sustain their Union men, and by conciliation with the seceders the evils they have suffered would have been averted. He did not have his way and we had to fight. We are able to fight them all, and would have been able to fight Maryland, too, if she had gone wrong. Mr. Seward spoke quite considerable length, and in concluding said it was now shown that slavery must be abolished ere we have peace, and the first legally called Convention of the people to abolish it was now sitting in Annapolis, the capital of the State of Maryland; and, honored as the ancient city was by its past history, it would be ten thousand times more honored as the capital of that State that was first to pronounce the first State Right authority against slavery.

In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Both deprecate whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this delectable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26d1m

Loss of Appetite.—In persons of sedentary and literary pursuits, if the brain is over-worked and the muscles under-worked, the appetite is very apt to fall from a general atonic of the system. The PERUVIAN SYRUP restores the tone of the digestive system and consequently the appetite, by supplying a pure blood to organs too weak to make it without assistance.

SORE THROAT, COUGH, COLD, and similar troubles, if suffered to progress, result in serious Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections, oftentimes incurable.

"* * * One young man, who had been sick and out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVANA MANSION, FIFTY-SECOND STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Then will send me two bottles more of the Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y."

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C."

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and bad to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
O. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y."

etc. etc. etc. 3ld etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhaustless nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon.

The Montecello and Cowlitz Landing Steamboat Company, libellant, vs. the Steamboat Senator.

WHEREAS, a libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the first day of June, A. D. 1864, by the Montecello and Cowlitz Landing Steamboat Company against the steamboat Senator, her tackle, apparel and furniture, alleging in substance that said libellants have a claim for damages against said steamboat Senator in a cause of collision civil and maritime. That on Saturday, the 20th day of May, A. D. 1864, on the Willamette river, in the State of Oregon, while the steamboat Rescue, bringing to said libellants the vessels proceeding on a voyage from the port of Portland to the port of Oregon City, on said Willamette river, she was with great force and violence run into and upon by the said steamboat Senator, thereby causing great injury and damage to the wheel, shaft and machinery of the said steamboat Rescue; That said collision was caused by the unskillful and improper management and the carelessness and negligence of the persons navigating the said steamboat Senator. And that in consequence of said collision and injuries to said steamboat Rescue libellants have sustained damages in the sum of two thousand dollars, and praying that the said steamboat Senator may be condemned and sold to pay the said sum of two thousand dollars damages. Now, therefore in pursuance of the monition under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give notice to all persons claiming the said steamboat Senator, her tackle, &c., or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held at the city of Portland in and for the District of Oregon, on the first Monday of July next, (A. D. 1864) at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction thereafter) then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

New York Workingwomen's Protective Union

At a meeting of workingwomen of New York held at the Cooper Institute on the evening of March 21st Judge Charles P Daly presided the Rev William H Milburn and others made pertinent speeches and Miss Loreau le monde recited a poem, which was sent on for the occasion by Mrs Ann S Stephens as follows

The war shout that rings up from Fort Sumter
Thrills through the answering West,
When Yon free the slave as a chattel
The joy of freedom to hail
But the prayer that comes from woman,
When she asketh bread from God
Is met with a clamor inhuman
"Mid an eager rush for gold
Work! Work! Work This is the answering cry
"Our wives are fond of jewels and widows were made to sigh"

We plead that our hands are weary
That our hearts are sad with woe—
That our hearts are despairing ready
Our spirits are sunk in despair
We plead that our children are crying
For the food we cannot give—
That hope in our bosom is dying
As a fire forgets to burn
Work Work Work this is the answer rushes by
"Our sons must have fast horses and children were born to cry"

We say that our homes are dark ones
For the loved who gave them light
To the first war trump I hear kened
And went away to the fight
Some have fallen low in the dirt has,
And some lie stark on the plain
We mingle sad tears with our wild ones,
But when we dare to complain,
Work Work Work! This is the answering cry
"We must make wealth by contracts and soldiers enlist to die"

Then we plead that as gold goes higher,
Our fuel is rising too—
That our hearths lack warmth and fire,
And the sewing that we can do
With all our weary toilsome stitching,
With all our tears and pain
With our desolate misery and watchi g,
Is worse, oh! worse than in vain—
Work! Work! Work! is still the answering cry,
"Heap coal and wine in our cellars—poor women were born to die"

TOUCHING SCENE IN FORT PICKERING—THRILLING SPEECH BY MRS. BOOTH—On Tuesday last April 3d, the widow of Major Booth, the late commander at Fort Pillow, arrived at Fort Pickering, below this city Col. Jackson, of the 6th U S Heavy Artillery, had his regiment formed into line for her reception. In front of its center stood fourteen men, as fine, brave fellows as ever tread the earth. They were the remnant of the first battalion of the regiment now drawn up—all who had escaped the fiendish scenes of Fort Pillow—scenes that have stamped yet deeper blackness on the infamous brow of treason.

Mrs. Booth came forward In her hand she bore a flag, red and clotted with human blood, She took a position in front of the fourteen heroes, so lately under her deceased husband's command.

The ranks before her observed a silence that was full of solemnity. Many a hardy face showed by twitching lids and humid eyes, how the sight of the bereaved lady touched bosoms that could meet steel, and drew on the fountain of tears that had remained dry even amid the piteous sights witnessed on the battle field after a fierce action.

Turning to the men before her, she said:

Boys, I have just come from a visit to the hospital at Mound City There I saw your comrades, wounded at the bloody struggle in Fort Pillow. There I found this flag—you recognize it One of your comrades saved it from the insulting touch of traitors at Fort Pillow!

I have given to my country all I had to give—my husband—such a gift! Yet I have freely given him for freedom and my country.

Next my husband's cold remains, the next dearest object left me in the world, is this flag—the flag that waved in proud defiance over the works at Fort Pillow!

I have given to my country all I had to give—my husband—such a gift! Yet I have freely given him for freedom and my country.

Next my husband's cold remains, the next dearest object left me in the world, is this flag—the flag that waved in proud defiance over the works at Fort Pillow!

Soldiers! this flag I give to you knowing that you will ever remember the last words of my noble husband "Never surrender the flag to traitors!"

Col Jackson then received from her hand on behalf of his command, the blood stained flag He called upon the regiment to receive it as such a gift ought to be received. At that call he and every man of the regiment fell upon their knees, and, solemnly appealing to the God of battles, each one swore to avenge their brave and fallen comrades, and never—never to surrender the flag to traitors.

The scene was one never surpassed in emotional incident Beside the swift rolling waters of the Mississippi—within the inclosure that bristled with the death dealing cannon—knelt these rough soldiers, whose bosoms were heaving with emotion, and on many of whose cheeks quivered a tear they tried to hide, though it did honor to their manly natures. Beside them stood, in her grief, the widow of the loved officer they had lost—and above them was held the bloody flag That eloquent record of crime, which has capped the climax of Rebellion, and which will bring a reckoning so fearful!

In few but pointed and decisive words, Col. Alexander pledged himself and his command to discharge to the uttermost the solemn obligation of justice they had that day taken.

Col Kappan followed him, expressing himself in favor of such retaliatory acts of justice as the laws of warfare require in a case of such fiendish and wicked cruelty

Woe to the unlucky reb who falls into the hands of any of the commands represented at this solemn declaration The determination of the officers of the 6th U S Heavy Artillery is inconvertible, their bravery has been tried, and they have never been found wanting—From the Memphis Bulletin

GEN GRANT IN CAMP—A military friend who has just passed some days at the head quarters in Culpepper, has given me an account of his visit and of the habits habits of the Lieutenant General, that I am glad to transcribe Gen Grant messes with his staff in a house in the village and at table sits familiarly every member of his military family. The expenses of the mess are divided among the ten, not in equal proportions exactly, but in a manner that is satisfactory to all There is not the slightest attempt to show or parade in the furniture and equipage; everything is for use and economy of trouble and space The crockery is scanty and of the plainest, and the fare, though sufficient in quantity, is just as homely as that of any thrifty and careful mechanic in your city. A chop with a cup of coffee for breakfast, a bit of roast beef, with potatoes and 'hard tack,' confronting a dish of pork and "greens," served for the 5 o'clock dinner, which was concluded without pastry or dessert A cup of tea and a bit of bread and butter at 8 o'clock finished up the day. The beds were simply camp cots, some with and others without mattresses and all the toilet apparatus anywhere visible were a few tin wash basins a moderate supply of towels, a bit of looking glass and a horn comb. At the table neither distilled liquor nor wine is permitted The General will not have either about him for his own or other's use

The inventory of the General's baggage when he made his brilliant campaign in the rear of Vicksburg is I take it, well remembered a—briar wood telescope and a toothbrush In what relates to personal adornment, and, outside of the necessity of eating and drinking, personal comfort, he has not greatly enlarged his possessions His three stars indicate his exalted rank, but, to say nothing of the charm which to soldier eyes these glittering marks of rank possess I doubt if there is a commissariat officer in his army who is as plainly clad as he is He clothes are worn threadbare, and despite the steady brushing of his servant they will have an unready look due, no doubt, to the General's habit of going everywhere and seeing everything for himself The General understands the relation between cleanliness and godliness but in his opinion, practically evinced, there is as much of either in a flint of shirt as in one of linen of drawing room immaculateness

You readers are not to suppose that I am describing a careless or indolent man, or one who does not know the difference between the garb of a gentleman and that of a sloven The facts are pointed out only as proof that the man's mind is so intent upon the great problem before him, that he has neither the time nor the inclination to consider miserable frivolities He holds a great razor a fute in the palm of his hand, and it is an encouragement to know that every faculty of his mind is calmly but profoundly exercised for the national welfare All his thought of carriages centres in the carriages which bear his field pieces, his discussion of the question of eating extends no further than to the rations of his men, and he would hate himself if he could spend a minute over the fit or fashion of his coat

Gen Grant never swears No man in his camp has ever heard him give utterance to profanity in any of its many forms. He rarely laughs, either but he has a sort of grim Humor which is not without its effect It is related as a part of the gossip of "the front," that an officer attached to the Quartermaster's Department of his army, wanted one wet day to consult with the General in Chief He is a believer in the old regime, and practised when under McClellan he was taught He had half a dozen miles to go, more or less, so he ordered out his close carriage, and as it was likely that night would come before he could return, the lamps were trimmed and hung out, on each side of the driver's seat Then, with an escort of 12 dragoons, he started happy, no doubt, in the belief that he was proof against the descending rain. Approaching Culpepper, he met an ordinary looking man on horseback, attended only by an orderly. As he passed, he recognized the Lieutenant-General, who, in spite of the rain, was making his usual round, in his usual modest way To descend from his carriage and salute his chief was but the work of a moment, but Grant, irritated by the style and pretension of his officer, was in no hurry to see him gain the shelter of his carriage roof again.

"Walk along with me a little," said the General, "I want to talk with you" With polished boots and unexceptionable kids, Mr. Quartermaster did as he was bid, and with a touch of that grimace to which I have referred, the General led him through the muddiest parts of the road, and did not release him until he was wet to the skin—as wet as the General himself He was then dismissed with an admonition that will be remembered, though it was interlarded with no oaths.

I do not know that these trivial details, which touch only the personal habits of Gen Grant, will interest your readers, but they are interesting to me They mark and individualize the man, upon whom rests much of the power to affect for weal or woe the future of this campaign.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,
OR PROTECTED
Solution of Protoxide of Iron,
Has been used with Great Success in Curing
DYSPEPSIA,
Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury, GENERAL DEBILITY,
and all Diseases which require a Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated and of such peculiar character that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill The facts are sought like witnesses accessible and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the Peruvian Syrup do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public

Rev JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C AMORY,

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicine effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a partial exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of the protoxide of Iron without further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way hitherto unknown, and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES M D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Adams, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1856, page 78)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, if before pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle Prepared by Dr H Anders & Co, Physicians and Chemists, New York
